

To whom it my concern

With respect to an incidence in UK we unfortunately have to ask you,

Promeditech GmbH
Bleiche 5
D-21423 Winsen, Germany

to recall the D-Dimer tests sold from Alltest and Sensogen from the market and follow the required procedures for an official recall. This is a preventive action required and we ask you to please officially recall the remaining tests from the lots defined below from the market. In addition we ask you to destroy remaining tests on stock and send up please a summary of actions taken once completed.

Quantity	pack LOT	EXP	date of delivery
500	DIM15080001	2017-07	17.09.2015
1.000	DIM16010005	2017-01	05.02.2016

Alltest was officially informed from us as well and we as Sensogen ask you to do the recall also for tests manufactured from Alltest based on the interface agreement between Promeditech GmbH and Sensogen.

Sincerely yours
